Text:

A heart that hears our grief,
an arm that bears the weak,
an ear that loves our voices,
a voice that calls us on.

The heart's door is so easily closed and the soul's music stilled.
God knows our need and sends the saint,
so when we are heard, lifted, loved—
we are freed as saints ourselves.

A hand that lifts the thorns,
an eye that seeks the lost,
a voice that calls us ever on,
and a love that never dies.

Lord, bless these saints
who sing, and sing, and sing
their hymn that opens heaven.

The musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are for the Flute and Clarinet in Bb, both in treble clef and common time. The Flute starts with a sustained note followed by eighth-note pairs. The Clarinet enters with eighth-note pairs. The bottom two staves are for the Piano/Bassoon, also in common time. The piano part includes bass notes and harmonic support. Measure numbers 5 and 6 are indicated above the staves. The score is set against a large, diagonal watermark that reads "For perusal purposes only. Do not use, copy, or distribute." in a stylized, serif font.

Reviewed as “gorgeous” (Washington Post) and “stunning” (Lawrence Journal-World), the music of Timothy C. Takach has risen fast in the concert world. Applauded for his melodic lines and rich, intriguing harmonies, Takach has received commissions from the St. Olaf Band, Cantus, Pavia Winds, Lorelei Ensemble, VocalEssence, the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center, The Rose Ensemble, and numerous other organizations. His compositions have been performed on A Prairie Home Companion, The Boston Pops holiday tour, multiple All-State and festival programs and at venues such as the Library of Congress, Kennedy Center and Royal Opera House Muscat. He is a co-creator of the theatrical production of All is Calm: the Christmas Truce of 1914, by Peter Rothstein.

Takach studied music composition at St. Olaf College, Northfield, MN, where he graduated with honors. He has frequent national work as a composer-in-residence, presenter, clinician and lecturer. He is a full-time composer and lives in Minneapolis with his wife and two sons.
