Text:

If we are only stardust
Let your names reach to the sky above us

Like petals wafting on a breeze
We lift you up beyond our reach

“Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”
Amen, Amen
”Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”
We say your names

If we are only stardust
May your blood never be in vain

Like petals wafting on a breeze
We lift you up beyond our reach

“Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”
Amen, Amen
“Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”
We say your names

Each day we grieve another face
Maybe all this stardust
Will carry us home one day
To a home where we can run
A home where we can pray
A home where we can breathe,
To sleep and dream without fear
Is justice this far away?

We cry your names
For the strength to keep on fighting
With the hope that you are flying

“Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”
Stardust

- Brittney Ray Crowell

Notes:

In “Stardust,” the singers call for “a home where we can run” in memory of Ahmaud Arbery, “a home where we can pray” in memory of the victims of the Mother Emanuel shooting, “a home where we can breathe” in memory of George Floyd, and a home “to sleep and dream without fear” in memory of Breonna Taylor. When we sing, we pray twice, and it is my prayer that this piece stirs all who hear it to call for justice for the people of color taken from this world before their time and without concern for their humanity.

- Marcus J. Jauregui

From the Poet:

“Kum Buba Yali, Kum Buba Tambe”

“These are the ‘magic words’ from Virginia Hamilton’s ‘The People Could Fly.’ There’s no actual translation for it, although it has some similarities to some African languages/dialects. The lack of translation may have been Hamilton’s way of showing how most of the Africans lost access to their ability to fly due to being enslaved and removed from their culture.”

Brittney Ray Crowell is a native of Texarkana, TX. She is the recipient of a Donald Barthelme Prize in Poetry and the Lucy Terry Prince Prize, judged by Major Jackson. Her poems have been published or are forthcoming in Ploughshares, Frontier, The Common, The West Review, Mount Island, Aunt Chloe, Copper Nickel, The Journal, and the anthology Black Lives Have Always Mattered. She recently participated as one of the librettists for the Kennedy Center’s Cartography Project. She is a teaching assistant and PhD candidate in Creative Writing and Literature at the University of Houston and a poetry editor for Gulf Coast.

B.E. Boykin

Brittney Boykin (B. E. Boykin) first pursued her interest in music during her time at Spelman College, attending classes that inspired and challenged her musical imagination and peaked her interest in composition. After graduating with a B.A. in Music, Boykin continued her studies while attending Westminster Choir College of Rider University in Princeton, New Jersey, graduating with a M.M. in Sacred Music and receiving the R & R Young Composition Prize. Boykin has been commissioned and collaborated with several organizations, including a number of ACDA divisions, the Minnesota Opera and the Kennedy Center. She obtained her PhD from Georgia State University with an emphasis in Music Education and is currently an Assistant Professor of Music at the Georgia Institute of Technology.
