Fighting Over What We Believe

*Talking left, talking right, talking far into the night,
Splitting hairs, splitting up, splitting off,
Less and more, rich and poor, what to address, what to ignore,
What are we really fighting for?*

*Persuade, coerce, convene, disperse, accept or curse?
Deny, confess, condemn or bless?
Who lives? Who dies?
My truth! Your lies!*

*Bring in, shut out, what's that all about?
Who gives out retribution and grace?
What to keep, what to spend,
What to give and what to lend?
Some have not, some have a lot:
Can we learn to share the things we've got?*

I see us fighting over what we believe; how to love and how to pray.
We begin with hope and resolve and dreams, and end up fighting over what we believe.
I see us fighting over what we believe, leaving spirits poor and lonely.
I want to use my fighting spirit in a different way instead of fighting over what we believe.

I want to wrestle with the angel 'til the light of dawn,
And struggle with my need for pride.
I want to take on my tendency to turn my head,
And grapple with why it feels so hard to gently lay our differences aside.

We all believe in justice. Let's talk about what that looks like.
And we believe in compassion. Let's look at what that really means.
We believe in the holy work of listening, to every voice.
Let's start our conversation there,

Instead of fighting over what we believe; it wears us down and wears us out.
We have eyes to see, we have ears to hear, we have hands that long to give and receive.
I see us fighting over what we believe, leaving spirits poor and lonely.
I want to use my fighting spirit in a different way instead of fighting over what we believe.

Divide, unite, exclude, invite, day, night, wrong, right, no end in sight...

We all believe in justice... Let's talk about what that looks like.

Fighting Over What We Believe is a compassionate meditation on social and political conflict, with a compelling dialogue of voices and a “call to action” refrain. Dialogue is a key element of this song, with back-and-forth exchanges between singers reflecting the active engagement present in all powerful conversations. In the intergenerational arrangements of this song, a dialogue is created between adult and youth choirs. In the adult choir arrangements, this dialogue is created by multiple short solos scattered throughout.

All Let's talk a - bout what that looks like.

Red. Red.

Despite the ritardando, the meno mosso, and the pianissimo, the last vocal note should not be held beyond its written value. The final vocal line is determined and unsentimental, and its cut off clean and strong.

Nancy Grundahl, who conducted the premiere, asked the singers to slowly close their folders and hold them by their side during measures 140-141, looking straight at the audience while they sang the last two measures. It made the ending quite powerful. Choirs planning to perform this song using music might consider this or another dramatic effect.
